A Word to the Wise!

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO FARMERS

Renner's Chemical Fertilizer!

THE importance of a quick, active and powerful Fertilizer, adapted to the soil of our country, is acknowledged by all farmers. Having satisfied myself, after long study and careful experiment, that F. C. RENNER'S surpasses all others in adaptedness to all kinds of soil, I have purchased the right for Adams county, and am prepared to fill orders for it promptly and on reasonable terms. It is no humbug, but by a number of our Farmers, and is admitted by all who have it to be the best in the market, and the cheapest. I am prepared to furnish this Fertilizer in any quantity, and will deliver

Chemical Fertilizer

In any town or village in the County, when ordered in not less quantity than a TON. I manufacture it for sale at $40 per ton without bags, or $45 in bags. This fertilizer is composed of the best fertilizing chemicals that can be had. I use no oil of vitriol; it does not contain any ammonia, therefore I do not use it. Neither do I use lime nor ashes.

THE OBJECT OF THE CHEMICAL FERTILIZER

is to introduce a fertilizer that will last for a series of crops—not only for one. It contains sufficient animal matter to nurture the grain and make it ripen early, while the ammonia forces the growth. I expect to manufacture large quantity this winter for the spring trade, and therefore invite farmers and the public generally to give it a trial on all kinds of Grains and Vegetables.

CAUTION.—I hereby give notice that Farm Rights hereafter sold unless signed by me, are infringements on my Right, and will be prosecuted and dealt with according to law, from which there is no appeal.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

Harper's Magazine, apart from the illustrations, contains from forty to one hundred per cent. more matter than any similar periodical issued in the English language.

CRITICAL NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of Harper's Magazine—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 120,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American people; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading-matter, appropriately illustrated with good woodcuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of love of pure literature.—TURNER'S Guide to American Literature, London.

STRENUOUS efforts are being made to secure the pardon of Dr. Schoeppe, convicted of the murder of Miss Steinnecke, of Carlisle. On Thursday last Gov. Geary gave a special hearing to the parties. Frederick Dittman, Esq., of Philadelphia, as the Solicitor of a Society for the Relief of Distressed Germans, presented testimonials and statements from leading physicians and opinions of Medical Societies, intended to show that Miss Steinnecke was not poisoned. Prof. Himes, of Dickinson College, read a paper giving as his opinion that Miss Steinnecke's death was not produced by poison. The case was also argued by Wm. H. Miller, Esq., the counsel of Schoeppe, and Dr. Seltzer of Carlisle, after which the papers were referred to the Attorney General.

AMOS KENDALL died in Washington on Friday last, aged 80 years. He was a native of Dunstable, Massachusetts, and worked on his father's farm until he was 18 years of age. Desiring an education, and his father being unable to send him to College, he prepared himself by private study to enter Dartmouth College in 1807, supporting himself by teaching during vacation. At the end of four years he graduated with the honors of his class. He subsequently studied law and removed to Kentucky, where he acquired prominence as a journalist, his political articles attracting much attention and exercising a commanding influence in the West. He was identified with General Jackson's Administration, first as Fourth Auditor of the Treasury, and afterwards as Postmaster General. He was the confidential adviser of the President, and most of Jackson's State papers were attributed to his pen. He continued as Postmaster General under Van Buren, resigning in 1840 to participate actively in the Presidential campaign which resulted in the election of Harrison. Since then he has held no official position, but has been largely identified with the establishment of telegraphic lines. He was a man of unquestioned ability, but never popular.

DEATH is busy gathering in the great ones of our country. We have already noticed the deaths of GEO. PEABODY, Admiral CHAS. STEWART, Maj. Gen. JOHN E. WOOL, and AMOS KENDALL. We now add to the list that of Hon. ROBERT J. WALKER, who died in Washington on Thursday the 11th instant, in the 68th year of his age. He was a lawyer of great ability, and a lifelong Democrat, but thoroughly devoted to the country, refusing to follow his party whenever, in his judgment, it proved recreant to the cause of Freedom. As Governor of Kansas, under Buchanan, he refused to become a party to the Lecompton swindle, and resigned rather than give his aid to the nefarious effort to fasten slavery on an unwilling people. During the Rebellion, he cordially supported the Government, voting for Lincoln's re-election as necessary to a vigorous prosecution of the war, although disapproving of a portion of his policy, including that of alleged arbitrary arrests and the substitution of military for civil authority in the Revolted States. During the dark days of the Rebellion, he went to Europe on a mission to counteract the poisonous influences of Rebel emissaries, visiting a number of European Capitals, and negotiating the sale of a large number of Government bonds. At the close of the war he resumed his connection with the Democratic party, and labored to bring it on a loyal basis and in accord with the logical sequence of events, but in vain. His personal worth and great abilities commanded universal respect, and in his death the Republic mourns the loss of a great and true man.

THE Philadelphia Medical fraternity are just now having a lively time over the question of "woman's rights," in the line of clinical instruction. Some thirty ladies attending the Female Medical College, purchased tickets for the clinical lectures at the Pennsylvania Hospital, where daily operations are performed in the presence of the students of Jefferson College, Pennsylvania University, and other medical schools. Some 300 or 400 young men have been in the habit of attending these lectures, and object to the presence of ladies, as often the operations require the exposure of the entire persons of the subjects operated on. When the female students appeared at a lecture last week, they were rudely insulted by the young men. The ladies insist on their rights, and the young men insist that they shall not attend. The newspapers have taken up the quarrel, and there has been quite a war of words pro and con. It seems to us that the whole difficulty could be obviated by the practice of a little common sense. There can be no valid objection to females qualifying themselves for the practice of Medicine and Surgery, and to do so they should be privileged to attend these clinical lectures. It may be that occasionally the subject matter treated would be one at which both sexes should not be present, but a sensible Professor could readily arrange the matter by treating these exceptional cases in the presence of either sex separately.

THE Carlisle Herald, under the management of Messrs. Weakly & Wallace, has been decidedly improved, both in typographical appearance and editorial ability. It is one of the very best of our exchanges—neatly printed, with spicy editorials, and in every respect a readable paper.

THE BIBLE IN COMMON SCHOOLS.

The action of the School Board of Cincinnati excluding the Bible from all the public schools in that city, has produced intense excitement in Cincinnati and elsewhere. Taken in connection with movements in other places, it is accepted as a part of a well matured and concerted plan to break down the Common School system, and with it all taxation for educational purposes, or to secure a division of the school fund for the support of denominational schools. The political and religious complexion of the vote in the Cincinnati School Board is thus given :

Of the 22 votes by the Board of Education, for excluding the Bible from the public schools, 10 were Republicans and 12 Democrats. Their religion is as follows: 3 Protestants, 10 Catholics, 8 Free-Thinkers, (Infidels,) and 1 Jew. Of the 15 votes against excluding, 12 were Republicans and 3 Democrats, and their religion as follows: 14 Protestants, 1 Free Thinker, and 1 Jew.

This action has drawn from the Press of the country, both religious and secular, varied comment, generally in strong denunciation, with here and there a defence on the ground that neither the Catholic or Protestant versions of the Bible should be used as a text-book in schools attended alike by Catholics and Protestants. There is a good deal of plausibility in this latter position; nor do we apprehend very serious consequences from such exclusion, if the matter end there. But it looks very much as if this were but the beginning of the end—that underneath this movement lies essential hostility to the Common School system—and this the Catholic Telegraph of Cincinnati frankly avows in the following article :

"From the atheistic theory that the State has authority to tax for education, separated from all religious influence, journalistic support of the schools veered to the advocacy of religious instruction. It was a transition that brought them into dire antagonism with the law to sustain a school system that tramples upon the rights of the Catholics. That blindness has driven these defenders of the common schools to a second defeat. The first chapter of this school controversy is now closed. It ends with a triumph of law. The second chapter will open with agitation, ... but the law itself, in the name of justice, and that both Protestants and Catholics have positive religious instruction in separate schools. If the school laws be modified to secure denominational education for all, Catholics will cheerfully pay their portion of the school fund. If this wise amendment can not be made, taxation for school purposes must cease. Now that the Bible has been excluded from the schools, if professed Protestants have been sincere in all they have said in its favor, they must agree with Catholics in the second issue of this question. Consistency will make them our friends in the fight."

Whatever may be the propriety of excluding the Bible or other religious text-books from the common schools, we trust the day will never come when our glorious system of popular education shall be made to give way to denominational and sectarian schools. The Common School system is the strength of the State. It is for the masses, and lies near the popular heart. When the issue foreshadowed by the Telegraph comes—If ever it does come—it will be sternly resisted and defeated. And in the conflict we feel assured that Popular Education will find liberal Catholics among its most ardent supporters.

THE RE-UNION of the Old and New School branches of the Presbyterian Church was accomplished at Pittsburg last week, both the General Assemblies having adjourned to meet in that place. In the Old School Assembly it was announced that 127 presbyteries out of 145 had answered the overtures affirmatively, 59 giving a unanimous vote. In the New School Assembly it was reported that out of 113 presbyteries all had approved the basis of union except three. All the preliminary arrangements having been satisfactorily adjusted, on Friday morning each body, after impressive devotional exercises, was formally dissolved, and the announcement was made that the United Assembly would meet in the First Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, on the third Monday in May, 1870; after which each Assembly formed in line and marched to the street, fronting the First Presbyterian church, when the New and Old School Commissioners joined arms, the union being greeted by the clapping of hands and waving of handkerchiefs by an immense crowd of spectators. The procession moved to the Third Church, where a union meeting was held. Telegrams were sent to the Presbyterians in Great Britain, announcing the union; the Scriptures were read, and an address made by Dr. Fowler, who at the close clasped hands with Dr. Jacobus, and pronounced the union complete. Impressive addresses were made by Drs. Jacobus, Musgrave, Adams, Halliday, and Judge Strong, Senator Drake, Hon. Wm. E. Dodge, and others. Dr. Fisher offered a resolution calling on the Church for a thank-offering of $5,000,000 for mission purposes, which was adopted.

The re-union of these two large and imposing religious bodies is a marked event in the current history of the day, and cannot fail to lead to still further ecclesiastical movements, that may result finally in the union of all the various branches of the Presbyterian family. For some years there has been a tendency to division and disintegration in various branches of the Christian Church, growing out of minor doctrinal difficulties and ritualistic discussions. The New School and Old School Presbyterians, after a third of a century's experience, have come together again, on a basis which virtually ignores the differences which led to a division, each body agreeing to recognize the orthodoxy of the other. The experience of this large and influential branch of the Christian Church may have a potent bearing on the future movements of other denominations.

THE Democracy of New York and Brooklyn are adepts in villainy, and there is no depth of infamy to which they will not resort to accomplish their purposes. It seems that at the recent election in Brooklyn, notwithstanding the gigantic frauds perpetrated by the repeaters and roughs, the "ring" candidate for Sheriff failed of an election, the Republican candidate leading him over 1200 votes. This was a result not expected, or that many more fraudulent votes would have been put in the box. But the Democratic leaders were equal to the crisis, and they have been at work since tampering with the official returns, and have actually counted out the Republican candidate with his 1200 majority. This, we presume, is the beginning of Mayor Hoffman's promised "reform" under Democratic regime.

REV. ISAAC SMITH, who has been on trial at Geneva, Illinois, for two weeks past on the charge of drowning his wife, was acquitted on Saturday. The case has attracted much attention in the West and caused great excitement.

AT twenty-seven cities in the Western States wheat is now quoted at fifty per centum lower than the rates obtained before the war, when gold and silver were in circulation. The price averages about sixty-two cents a bushel. No wonder that the grain speculators are suspending all over the country.

A VERDICT for $17,000 damages was rendered in the Baltimore City Court on Wednesday, in the case of Margaret Beck and her four children, against the Northern Central Railroad, for damages in causing the death of Michael Beck, the husband, and father of the plaintiffs. The defendants moved for a new trial. Beck was killed in September 1868.

ONE night last week four dogs killed two hundred and ten sheep, and injured a great many more, belonging to Judge Lawrence, on his farm some four miles west of Belle Centre, Logan county, Ohio. Several Canadians who favor annexation to the United States visited the President on Friday and were granted an interview of an hour's duration. LAST Wednesday evening, at Harwich, Mass., two little girls, of six and four years respectively, were left with a kerosene lamp burning in the chamber in which they had been put to bed. The house took fire and the children perished. They cannot tell their story, but all the appearances indicate that the fire originated in their room, the lamp-flame being the only fire therein. There was probably an explosion with the usual consequences. This might have been occasioned in various ways known to those who are familiar with the dangers of this method of artificial illumination. To add to the distress of this wretched "accident," the mother of the children, unmarried, for their loss, has become a maniac.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CUMBERLAND.—The North Mountain was on fire on last Friday afternoon, near Waggoner's Gap, and continued to burn until Saturday morning.—On Friday morning last, Moses Brocht, of North Middleton township, about two miles from Carlisle, was charging a vicious bull from one stall to another, when the animal turned on him and gored him fearfully in the abdomen, elevated him upon his horns, and threw him some distance from him. As he was about making another charge on the prostrate man, his son, a small boy, succeeded in driving him away. A neighbor, who was passing, assisted the family to remove the wounded man to the house, when his wounds were dressed by a physician. He died on Saturday morning.—A cool and imprudent thing was perpetrated on Saturday night, on the farm of David Koser, Southampton township. Some villian deliberately stole a hog from the pen, killed it, took it to one of the trees in the orchard, dressed it, and afterwards carried it off.—David Sponsler, a well-known horse doctor, of Mechanicsburg, died from a stroke of apoplexy, in New Bloomfield, on the evening of the 2nd inst.—A little daughter of Mrs. Eaton, of Carlisle, aged 6 years, was terribly burned during the absence of her mother, on Tuesday of last week. The little girl had been sick, but was able to get up in bed. Mrs. Eaton went to a house near by to do some washing, leaving the little girl and a younger brother at home alone. From all that can be learned, the children commenced playing, when the little boy discovered some matches, and lighting one threw it on his sister's clothes, which together with the pillows on the chair on which she was seated, taking fire, caused the child literally to roast alive. Her body, arms and face were terribly charred, and when discovered she was suffering untold agony. She lingered until Wednesday morning, when she died.—Abm. Brady, of South Middleton township, died suddenly of the cramp colic, on Saturday last.—David Goodyear, of Monroe township, went to Harper's Ferry, Va., to buy cattle last week, and was robbed of $1,900.

FRANKLIN.—Daniel Royer has sold his farm, near Waynesboro', 39 acres, to Jacob C. Stouffer for $6,800.—George Jacobs, formerly of Waynesboro', and in 1856 a member of the Legislature, died in Knoxville, Illinois, on the 2nd inst.—The Shoe store of C. Ruthes, Waynesboro', was entered by burglars on the night of the 1st inst., and robbed of goods to the amount of $300.—Hon. Charles Sumner will lecture in Chambersburg on the evening of the 25th inst., on "The question of Caste."

YORK.—The Hanover Spectator insists that the statement about two runaway couples of married men and single ladies, from Westminster, Md., and Reading, Pa., was correct in every particular.—Mrs. Louisa Flieschbaugh, has purchased the house and lot of ground in Hanover, belonging to the estate of Jacob Feiser, deceased, for $1,035.—The President and Directors of the First National Bank of Hanover, last week declared a semi annual dividend of 5 per cent.

LIVE STOCK.

The official tables just published at Washington, showing the details of the live stock in the United States, enables us, says the North American, to illustrate more fully our former remarks on this subject in connection with the position of Penn-sylvania. The following figures show the superiority of New York and Ohio over us in the dairy interest, despite our acknowledged excellence in the quality of our butter.

New York	1,159,866
Ohio	747,250
Pennsylvania	663,982

No other State approaches these three in this item, but it will be seen that the New York aggregate is considerably more than double our own. Cheese making has made immense progress in Ohio also of late years, while in Pennsylvania it has scarcely advanced at all. In regard to other cattle, Pennsylvania stands fifth on the list, thus:

Texas	2,095,745
Illinois	867,962
Ohio	749,590
New York	748,340
Pennsylvania	721,362

The Illinois figures show the extent to which the stocker-carry on their business in the neighborhood of Chicago. The Texas cattle trade has been of immense advantage to them. We are also sixth in the matter of horses, thus:

Ohio	710,000
Illinois	677,312
New York	459,5 2
Iowa	454,780
Indiana	424,275
Pennsylvania	408,600

In the number of sheep we stand fourth on the list, thus:

Ohio	6,300,000
New York	4,247,351
Michigan	3,553,371
Pennsylvania	3,045,589

Our total is thus not half that of Ohio.—It will be perceived that the only States that compete with us in most of the tables are Ohio, New York and Illinois, and that these with Pennsylvania cut a respectable figure in all kinds of live stock. Our State plods along, industriously paying attention to all and excelling in nothing. The figures seem to indicate that the farming interest of all kinds is strongest and best in Ohio and New York.

THE TREASURY STATEMENT.—A statement of receipts and balances is published by the Secretary of the Treasury for the quarter ending September 30. The balance in the Treasury June 30, 1869, by this statement, is $8,379,809 34 in excess of the balance as published in the debt statement of July 1, 1869, and the balance in the Treasury September 30, 1869, by this statement, is $4,651,194 93 in excess of the balance as published in the debt statement of October 1, 1869. These differences are accounted for by the fact that the expenditures are all known and included in the month ly debt statements, while the receipts being taken from the returns in the office at the close of business on the last day of each month, do not include the entire receipts for the quarter. By comparing the receipts and expenditures for the quarter ending September 30, 1869, with that ending September 30, 1868, the decrease in expenditures for this quarter of the present year is $17,118,307 42, and the increase in receipts is $14,249,210 85, a total net gain of $31,367,518 07.

This is another gratifying evidence of the economical policy of the Administration, and it is one that will tend to elevate the Administration in the popular esteem. Promises are one thing—performance is quite another. General Grant made the promise in his inaugural and he has kept it. He sets a good example to many a man in office, who makes and breaks his word with commendable regularity and uncommendable zeal.

The cereal product of Europe in 1868, it is calculated, amounted to 4,754,516,804 imperial bushels, or 16 bushels to each inhabitant, while that of the United States amounted to 1,405,449,653, or 36 bushels per inhabitant. Of the product of Europe, 1,484,487,500 bushels were grown in the Russian possessions in Europe, 664,411,100 in North and South German, 717,215,996 in France, 671,264,765 in Austria and Hungary, 380,887,930 in Great Britain and Ireland, 191,663,418 in Italy, 204,876,890 in Spain, 129,446,658 in Roumania and 120,-00,000 in European Turkey.

In the published report of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge of the United States of the Order of Free and Accepted Masons, it is stated that the membership of the order in the different States and Territories and the British possessions reaches 454,855, including 4,791 in Maryland.

LETTER FROM EUROPE.

Return to London—The Election in Pennsylvania—Correction of Errors —Prussian Educational System—Railroading in Europe.

LONDON, Oct. 30, 1869.

MY DEAR SIR:—Returning to London, I find the Star of October 1st, 8th and 15th.

I thank you for having so promptly and decidedly denied the silly story that I was opposed, or indifferent, to Gov. Geary's re-election. What have I ever said or done, that I should be held, by any one, to deserve so insulting an imputation? So far from its being true, I have always thought, and said, that Gov. Geary's administration was singularly pure and independent; and, in my judgment, he richly merited the vote of confidence recently given him. I rejoice in his re-election, and all the more as it is a rebuke to the party which appears to me to be organized on the worst principles ever adopted by any party in a free country, and which ought, while it continues to maintain them, to be defeated as regularly as it has been since it espoused them. Judge William's election is an especial gratification, as it secures to the Supreme Court a majority of members who will not agree to pervert the law to the purposes of Treason, or interpose their power to the protection of the infamous men who have periodically organized election frauds, to pollute the ballot-box and defeat the popular will.

Your compositors have made sundry mistakes in setting up my letters, some of which are ludicrous, others absurd, and a few only important. In my first letter, I am made to say that I had not seen a "modern" dwelling in England. What I wrote was, that I had not seen a "wooden" dwelling. In my second, I am represented as saying that I had gone on Sunday to visit the Tombs of Lafayette and Napoleon. What I wrote was, that I had gone "on the same day," to see them. That was not a Sunday. I know the difficulties in the way of the accurate deciphering of my hand-writing, and have concluded not to write on a number of points which occurred to me as likely to interest your readers. But two things I wish to mention.

In Prussia, what strikes the observer most is the thoroughness of their civil and military education. Every child is required to go to school—public or private—from the age of six to the age of fourteen. If any absent themselves, the parents are notified, and it attendance do not result the parents are punished first with fine, and, on repetition of the absence, with imprisonment. Government maintains the schools, and thus every child gets eight years schooling at public expense. From the age of 20 to 23, every male is required to serve in the army: from 23 to 35, they are held liable to service at any moment, constituting the first class. Those from 35 to 50 constitute the second class, and are also liable, but in a limited degree. Those over 50 are exempt. This training has made a nation of high average intelligence, and great efficiency: and the logical result of it is the recent rise of Prussia from the position of a secondary to a first-class Power.

Another thing which struck me all over Europe is that at every railroad crossing of a street or road, the company stations an employee who keeps a gate which is closed when the train is coming, or passing is unsafe, and is open at all times when passengers, either on foot or horse back, in wagons or carriages, may safely pass. The responsibility is not thrown upon the traveller to know when it is safe to cross. The party whose road makes it unsafe, is required to give the notice, and is responsible for the failure.—This is an illustration of the care of human life which is exacted of public carriers, all over Europe, and appears worthy of imitation at home. In our State, Illinois, and elsewhere, juries are by law limited in the award of damages from accident by railroad. It would appear but just that the companies should reciprocate this generosity by consenting to take this trouble to prevent accidents from occurring.

THE COVODE-FOSTER CASE.—A Washington despatch says that Hon. John Covode has proved before the House Election Committee over two hundred fraudulent votes cast for Foster in the Twenty-first Congressional district. He also, the dispatch states, shows such frauds by the Democratic election officers as will throw out two whole polls and give him a majority of about five hundred. As Foster only claimed to be elected by about forty or fifty majority, Covode, if the evidence he produces is satisfactorily to the House, must get his seat.

A WATCH, pair of Blankets, Quilt or Shawl for One Dollar appears almost impossible, but such may be had and hundreds of other useful articles by patronizing PARKER & CO'S, "ONE DOLLAR SALE."

Their system of doing business has been established by the authorities and a DECISION rendered from the Internal Revenue department at Washington dated Nov. 4, 1868, declaring their business perfectly fair and legitimate and entirely different from the numerous gift enterprises. Of course all do not get watches, blankets, &c., for One Dollar, but in every large Club, one of these articles are sold for One Dollar, as an extra inducement, and some member of the club has the chance of obtaining it. A New feature introduced by the enterprising firm, is to pay their patrons in either cash or merchandise and to prepay the express charges. No better opportunity can be offered to either Ladies or Gentlemen, having leisure time, than to form clubs for this firm.

THE ONLY RELIABLE CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA IN THE KNOWN WORLD.

Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and Pine Tree Tar Cordial are a positive and infallible cure for dyspepsia in its most aggravated form, and no matter of how long standing.

They penetrate the secret abode of this terrible disease, and exterminate it root and branch, forever. They alleviate more agony and silent suffering than tongue can tell.

They are noted for curing the most desperate and hopeless cases, when every known means fail to afford relief.

No form of dyspepsia or indigestion can resist their penetrating power.

PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL.

It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree, obtained by a peculiar process in the distillates of the tar, by which its highest medical properties are retained. It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite. It strengthens the debilitated system. It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds on the lungs. It dissolves the mucus or phlegm which stops the air passages of the lungs. Its healing principles seize upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflamation. It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted with positive assurance of its power to cure the following diseases, if the patient has not too long delayed as a resort to the means of cure:—

Consumption of the Lungs, Cough, Sore Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Blind and Bleeding Piles, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, &c.

A medical expert, holding honorable collegiate diplomas, devotes his entire time to the examination of patients at the office parlors. Associated with him are three consulting physicians of acknowledged eminence, whose services are given to the public free of charge.

This opportunity is offered by no other institution in the country.

Letters from any part of the country, asking advice, will be promptly and gratuitously responded to. Where convenient, remittances should take the shape of

IT IS NOW 22 YEARS SINCE DR. SPECIAL NOTICE.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,

Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digested and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved. A dose of these pills will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been found to equal or exceed a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

WOOD WANTED.

A few Cords of good dry Wood will be taken at this office, in payment of accounts, if delivered immediately.

COURT.—The November Court will commence on Monday next, continuing two weeks. The first week will be occupied in the trial of criminal cases, and the second with civil causes. The attendance of Jurors, witnesses, and clients, will furnish a good opportunity for those indebted to us to send in money; and as we are just now "hard up," we hope our friends will bear it in mind.

ZOUAVES.—The Franklin Zouaves will meet in Mummasburg on Saturday the 27th inst., at 9 o'clock A. M., for business and drill.

FOUND.—A small Portmonaie, with 25 cents, was found last week. Also a black berege Veil. The owners can have them by calling at this office.

IN ADVANCE.—To enable all hands to observe Thanksgiving day we issue our paper this week in advance of our usual publication day.

CHHNGE OF HOURS.—On Monday last, another change was made in the time table of the Getiysburg Railroad. The first train now leaves at 8.40 A. M., and the second train at 2.45 P. M.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Wm. Guinn is preparing to put up a two-story brick dwelling on the lot purchased from Mr. Wible on Carlisle street. Emanuel Ziegle, of J., and Mrs. Lavinia Sheads are arranging to build dwellings on the same street.

☞By no means miss Prof. Kidd's readings on next Tuesday evening.

FITTING UP.—We understand that the Reformed Congregation of this place, Rev. W. H. H. Destrich Pastor, are re-fitting their Church, introducing new stoves, re-modelling the pews, &c. The improvements will cost about $600.

THE CONCERT.—Don't forget the Concert in Agricultural Hall to-morrow (Thanksgiving) night. There will be good music and other attractions. Tickets to be had at A. D. Buehler's, Fahnestock Bros, and at the door—25 cents; children under 12 years 15 cents.

The Waynesboro Record in its last issue thus deals with a delinquent subscriber:

IN ARREARS—John W. Redpoes this office $6 50 for subscription. Having forwarded his account without receiving a reply we take it for granted that he is either dead or in the Penitentiary; therefore the paper is discontinued and the account cancelled.

SNOW.—On Saturday last we had the first snow of the season, with a depth of about three inches. Most of it, however, has already disappeared.

On Tuesday there was another fall of snow about four inches deep.

BURNED.—A despatch from Chicago says that the beautiful Episcopal Church at Omaha, known as Bishop Clarkson's Cathedral, was totally destroyed by fire on Thursday night. Bishop Clarkson is a son of Col. Michael C. Clarkson, long a resident Gettysburg.

SKATING PARK.—The students of Pennsylvania College were busy last week in converting the meadow west of Stevens Hall into a Skating ground, by thanking up a footway on the southern line of the meadow. It required a good deal of labor, which was cheerily gone through with. All that is now needed is a sufficient fall of rain to fill the meadow, and then sufficient cold to freeze it over. The young men not having control of the elements will have to wait patiently for the desired rain.

FROM MR. McPHERSON.—We give to-day another brief letter from Mr. McPherson, who will probably reach home by the time the STAR & SENTINEL of this week reaches our readers. He expected to sail from Liverpool on the 6th, and hoped to be able to eat Thanksgiving dinner in Gettysburg.

ARRIVED.—As we go to press we have a telegram from Mr. McPherson announcing his safe arrival at New York yesterday.—He expects to reach Gettysburg this (Wednesday) evening.

DOES IT PAY TO ADVERTISE?—The Boston Journal says that a leading book firm in that city answers this question as follows: They published an addition of a book of 500 copies, and did not advertise it. In about a year nearly the whole edition remained on his hands, as the author, who was largely interested, did not think it would pay to advertise. Finding his book did not sell, he followed the advice of his publishers and advertised freely. His book has now gone through seven editions of 500 copies each, and the eighth is ordered. The author now believes in advertising.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Correspondents must observe certain rules, or have their contributions go into the waste basket. Let the subject matter be of general interest. Say what is to be said in the shortest possible space. Avoid personalities. Write a clear, legible hand. And never write on both sides of the same sheet. The latter rule is requisite, as lengthy articles have frequently to be cut up for different compositors. We have now on hand a letter from the West, covering 17 pages, sufficiently interesting to justify its publication. But being written on both sides of the sheets, and not having leisure to re-write, it had to be excluded.

LETTERS OUTSIDE THE MAILS.—

By a recent decision of the Post Office Department, communications may be sent outside of the mail, if enclosed in stamped envelopes (and being equal in value and amount in rates of postage to which such letters would be liable if sent by mail,) and properly sealed so that such letters cannot be taken therefrom without tearing or destroying such envelope, and the same duly directed and addressed, and the date of said letter on the envelope; and it is not required that such letters and envelopes be handed to the postmaster at the point of destination. It is the duty of route agents to receive letters written after the mail is closed, and all way letters prepaid by stamps.

SALES.—The "Company Mills," in Liberty township, were sold by the Messrs. Irvin to the 6th inst., to Wm. Ross White, for $5,400.

John Norbeck, Administrator of Catharine Norbeck, dec'd, sold the house and lot of said decedent, on Baltimore street, to the Misses Wilson, at $1,700.

Wm. Guinn has purchased of Joseph Wible a half lot of ground, on Carlisle street, at $550.

George W. Wertz, Liberty township, sold a lot of about 84 acres to Wm. D. Hill, for $850.

Lt. James Hersh has purchased Houser's Hotel in New Oxford for $4,000, and will take possession on the 1st of April next.

PROF. KIDD will on Tuesday evening next, in Agricultural Hall give our citizens a rich feast of good things in his reading of varied selections comprising pieces of dramatic, amusing, imitative, and all a highly entertaining character. Tickets for sale at the stores of M. Spangler and A. D. Buehler, and also at the door on evening of the reading, price 35 cents. Proceeds devoted to interests of St. James (Lutheran) Sabbath-school.

TIMELY HINTS ON THE USE OF COAL.—

The following timely hints on the economical use of coal, from the Scientific American, will be found worthy of a careful study by many of our readers:

A common fault is to use too coarse wood for kindling, and to much of it.—This, while it gen erally succeeds in lighting the coal, leaves, a bed of ashes below the coal which interferes with the draught unless raked out—an operation which always retards the combustion of ignited coal. The wood should be of some rapidly burning variety which gives a quick and high heat, and should be split fine. It should be so placed that the coal will remain on the top of it, and not fall through to the grate, leaving the kindling on the top of any part of the coal. The amount of kindling wood required depends much upon the sized coal. A common mistake is to use too large sized coal. A good rule, where stoves or furnaces have a good draught, is to use coal as small as can be used without inconvenience from its sifting too freely through the grate.

Grates should have their bars closely set for stoves that are cleaned out daily, and have fires lighted in them each morning, while those which are intended to have fires kept in them continuously for days or weeks will not admit of fine grates, on account of the accumulation of ashes and small "clinkers." There is much difference in coal in regard to the formation of "clinkers." These are nothing but vitrified, or partially vitrified, earthy matters, and only can form when a high heat is maintained; they are apt to be troublesome when there is too great draught. A coal stove or furnace should be so constructed that its draught can be perfectly controlled. The bottom draught should admit of being closed air tight, as nearly as is possible to make it, and there ought always to be provision made for a top draught. If, however, the draught of the chimney should be so strong that air in too great quantities is drawn in at the bottom when the dampers are closed, a damper in the pipe which will close it partially, must be employed, though in sluggish chimneys such a damper is apt to force the gases of combustion into the room, and therefore it ought always to be avoided when possible.

The practice of putting ashes on the top of a fire too keep it is very productive of clinkers, although it answers the purpose very well in other respects. Damp coal screenings are better, and may be economically burned in this manner. If a coal fire gets very low, the quickest way to extinguish it is to rake it at the bottom.

To, preserve fire under such circumstances, a little coal should be placed on the fire, and when it has caught more may be added, and the raking deferred until it has got well ignited. When the fire bricks have become burned with clinkers which have fused and adhered, they may be cleaned by throwing oyster or clam shells into the fire box when the fire is very hot, and allowing the fire to go out. The clinkers will generally cleave off without the use of much force the next morning. From two quarts to one half a peck will be sufficient for most stoves, and the operation can be repeated if some of the clinkers still adhere.

A WORD FOR LOCAL NEWSPAPERS.—

We take the following from the N. Y. Tribune. It is true, and we commend it to every one who has an interest in the country where he resides:

"Nothing is more common than to hear people talk of what they pay for advertising, &c., as so much giving in charity. Newspapers by enhancing the value of property in the neighborhood, and giving the localities in which they are published a reputation abroad, benefit all such, particularly if they are merchants or real estate owners, thrice the amount yearly of the meagre sum they pay for their support. Beside, every public spirited man has a laudable pride in having a paper of which he is not ashamed, even though he should pick it up in New York or Washington.

"A good looking, thriving sheet helps properly, gives a character to locality, and is in many respects a desirable public convenience. If from any cause the matter in the local or editorial column should not be to your standard, do not cast it aside and pronounce it good for nothing, until satisfied that there has been no more labor bestowed upon it than is paid for. If you want a good readable sheet it must be supported. And it must not be supported in a spirit of charity either, but because you feel a necessity to support it. The local press is the power that moves the people."

☞Read Mr. Wanamaker's very interesting note in another column. It is clear and conclusive, and shows very plainly that the present move at Oak Hall is based on true business principles, and is sure of large success. We are only anxious that our patrons come in for their full share of the spoil.

JUBILEE.—The Philadelphia Catholic Standard has a detailed notice of the services, known as "The Forty Hours' Devotion," in connection with the Jubilee, in the church of St. Francis Xavier, Gettysburg, (Rev. J. A. Boll pastor,) which commenced on the 17th ult. The services were impressive and interesting, the pastor being assisted by Father McIlvaine, of Elizabethtown; Father Pieper, of Columbia; Father Cox, of Tremont; Father Russell, of Columbia; and Father Field, of Chambersburg.

The altar was handsomely decorated, displaying much taste and beauty, and during the evening services was brilliantly illuminated. The services openened on Sunday morning at 6 o'clock, with the Mass of the Exposition, followed by High Mass at 10, Vespers at 3, and devotional services at 7 P. M. On Monday and Tuesday Mass was said in the morning, with preaching at night, the entire services closing on Tuesday night with a procession of the Sunday-school, in honor of the Blessed Sacrament, all the visiting priests taking part. The music by the choir is represented to have been very fine.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—

We are in receipt of this marvellously cheap and handsome Magazine for December. Its table of contents is varied and charming, embracing the usual fine variety of serials, sketches, stories, poems, and attractive engravings. The publishers announce in the prospectus for the coming year, a serial story for adults, by the popular Magazine writer, JAMES FRANKLIN FITTS, and a juvenile serial by the young people's favorite, HORATIO ALGER, JR. The price of this periodical is a marvel to everybody—a hundred page first-class illustrated Magazine for fifteen cents, or $1.50 per year, is indeed wonderfully cheap. Elliot, Thomes & Talbot, Publishers, Boston, Mass.

THE HOWE SEWING MACHINE AGENCY.—At the Clothing Store of Samuel Wolf, corner of York street and the Diamond, JACOB F. THOMAS Agent. Just received a stock of these world renowned Family Sewing Machines. These unequaled machines are adapted to every variety of sewing, from the finest cambric to the heaviest cloths and Velvet Cord. They work equally well upon Silk, Linen, Wollen and Cotton goods, with silk, cotton or linen thread, ALSO HOME-MADE THREAD. They will seam, quilt, hem, fell, cord, braid, bind and perform every species of Sewing, making a beautiful and perfect stich alike on both sides of the article sewing.

Over 50,000 of the unrivaled machines, were manufactured and sold during the year 1868. This is unprecedented in the history of Sewing Machines, and is another proof of the great popularity of the Howe Machine.

It is simple and durable and easily understood, and sold on easy terms, and insured for one year. nov. 19, 3t.

PHILADELPHIA, November 15, 1869.

DEAR SIR:—We enclose you an extra advertisement, which you will please substitute, for a few days, for our regular standing advertisement. You, as a business man, will easily appreciate the position of affairs as stated by us in the enclosed, and will doubtless approve of the remedy we have adopted. Every one anticipated an unusually brisk trade this season, and every one has been disappointed. We, perhaps, have been the most fortunate of all Philadelphia merchants, our business showing a large increase over last year's; but we have made such prodigious preparations that we cannot hope in the ordinary way to dispose of our purchases and manufactures. But two courses are open to us,—either to carry over all this stock into next year, to our great inconvenience, if not loss; or to clear it out by a sweeping sale, being content to recover the money we have invested in this surplus stock. We have adopted the latter. You have already spoken to your readers of our present stock,—its immense size, its excellence, and its cheapness, and many of your neighbors are among our most valued customers. Will you please now call their attention to our proposed sale, and say to them that with the single exception of our "Executor's Sale," last Winter, there has not been in the life of any of them so good a chance for a bargain in clothing. Get them to read every word of our advertisement, and then if they have any regard for their own interests, we will be sure to sell at least one suit to every man of them.

Yours very respectfully,
JOHN WANAMAKER,
(WANAMAKER & BROWN,)

EDUCATION IN TYRONE.

Education is in a backward state in this township, yet we hope that this article may do something toward rousing the people from their lethargy. The school houses are very bad. There is scarcely a house in the district fit for the purpose for which they are used. Those "new houses" which have been built during the past few years, and of which they boast so much, are mere "shanties," either built where "two roads cross," or on some out-of-the way place where lands are cheap; and then only enough was purchased to build the house on, while a play-ground for the children was never even thought of. Another prominent feature is, that the houses are all fenced out instead of in. The houses are defectively furnished, especially in the line of blackboard surface. It is a false and pernicious economy, which would build school houses and employ teachers, on the "cheap" plan. School houses should be made attractive and comfortable—provided with the best of appliances—and live teachers put in charge of them, if the School system is to prosper. Let us have old fogyism in any thing but School matters. OBSERVER.

Rice, of this vicinity, had a pound of the above named potatoes, and sold three of ordinary size for thirty cents, and then placed a few in a "hot bed," and sold one hundred and two sprouts at five cents each, amounting to five dollars and ten cents, making with the three sold previously five dollars and forty cents. He planted the remainder and raised 94 pounds of potatoes. New Oxford, try again. S.

THE Government officers are bringing to grief the illicit distilleries in Brooklyn.—They were beaten off by mobs, but they removed. The New York Herald says it is remarkable, that notwithstanding the extent to which illicit distillation is carried on, and the resistance which revenue officers are met with, even to attempted assassination, as in the case of Brooks, in Philadelphia, the Government is still able to show an increase of twenty or thirty millions a month in the revenue receipts. It is evident that the Administration is doing well in protecting honest distilleries from the frauds of illicit manufacturers. We are having now, it is evident, the blessings of an honest national administration.

A RECENT publication on the prices of wild beasts for shows states that a first-class hippopotamus is worth $5,000 or $6,000; a lion, $1,000 or $2,000; an elephant, $3,000 to $6,000; a giraffe, $3,000; a Bengal tiger, $2,000; a leopard, $6,000 to $9,000; a hyena, $500, and that a New York house in the last three years has sold $112,000 worth of these animals, exclusive of a lively trade in monkeys, birds &c.

WHEN the military fired upon the riotous striking miners of Aubin, France, a woman, who had her child in her arms, turned to fly, pressing the baby to her breast; the child was struck by several balls in the head, and the furious mother, turning back, and meeting an officer, hurled her child in his face, exclaiming, "Take it, ruffian! You want our blood! Take it, then—drink it!"

THE Lancaster Farmer remarks that many Lancaster county farmers are now entirely divested of their forests, many plantations not having as much as a single tree left for shade for men or beasts. A farmer lately sold the last two acres of timber on his farm, in West Lampeter, by the tree, ninety in number, bringing between five and six hundred dollars. One hickory tree sold for fifty-eight dollars. Timber is getting every year scarcer and more valuable.

HORRIBLE DEATHS

Occur almost everyday from the explosion of Coal Oil Lamps.

Coal Oil has become so inferior now-a-day as to render it unsafe in its use as an illuminating or burning fluid.

"KING'S NON-EXPLOSIVE BRILLIANT ILLUMINATING FLUID,"

is the article that now far excells the Coal Oil, in its safety, brilliancy and economy. It is perfectly safe, being a Non-Explosive Fluid, inasmuch as a lighted match may be thrown into the bowl of the lamp, while burning without danger of explosion.

It is void of grease, but can be used for removing the same from wood or any fabric.

It is a little cheaper than Coal Oil and every family should use it, and do away with this

HOW TO MARKET BUTTER.

The Boston Cultivator tells how the farmers near Philadelphia get so high a price for their butter:

"First, they always make a first-class article, so their customers, sure of getting the best there is, will not desert them on account of a rise in the price. Second, they bring in their butter in a showy and attractive condition. No pot or delf ware, no tub or pail of oak or hemlock, no vulgar firkin is used to entomb those noble balls, golden-hued with the aroma of white clover and Poa pratensis lingering in the firm grain. A large tin vessel, designed expressly for the business, has chambers at each end, into which ice is put. The wooden shelves, about three inches apart, rest on little projections from the sides. A layer of balls is then placed on the bottom and covered with its shelf, but not so as to touch or mar the handsome print of a sheaf of grain, which stands out on the top of each ball; on the shelf another layer of prints, and so on till the vessel is full, they containing forty or fifty pound prints. The tin, with ice in each end, is then set in a wooden tub which has been cooled with ice or spring water. Over this is drawn a cover of padded carpeting, with oil-cloth on the top. Thus hot air and dust are wholly excluded, and the butter rides to the city and opens in the market-house in as fine condition as when packed in the spring-house. In just this way, with this degree of care and skill, is the best Philadelphia butter made, marked and marketed. No wonder the Philadelphians would rather pay seventy-five cents than go back from such manna to the leeks and onions of the common firkin.

A HUGE FARM AND HOW IT IS WORKED.—The Cincinnati Gazette has the following: "What do you say to a corn-field in Benton co., Indiana, of 7,000 acres, in good condition and growing splendidly? It is to be found on the farm of Adams Earl, Esq., who resides in Lafayette. Messrs Earl & Fowler have 30,000 acres in Benton county, in one body, well watered; and with permanent improvements, having 140 miles of hedge fence and 65 miles of board fence, 30 dwelling houses for tenants, three blacksmith shops, etc. To cultivate the corn land 169 one and two-horse ploughs were kept in daily use, and on the pasture lands 4,100 head of cattle are now feeding for the New York market, and will be shipped this fall by rail. Messrs. Earl & Fowler give their personal supervision to the farm, besides attending to their separate interests, the former a jobbing merchant, and the latter a banker. With the late improvements in farm machinery and harvesting implements, they are enabled to keep the model farm in good condition, and from present appearances the balance sheet will be on the right side, as heretofore."

MOWING WITH A CAMEL.—Being in the Park in New York, the other day, we saw—what perhaps few of our readers have ever seen—a camel mowing! Here one of these humped animals was harnessed to a lawn mower, which he drew with great steadiness and apparent ease. The harness resembled a breast-plate for a horse, with the plate resting on his neck in front of the hump on his shoulders, with the shoulder strap under his body, behind his forelegs. He threw his weight into it as the ox does into the yoke. He was not a very large-sized camel, but would weigh perhaps nine hundred pounds. He had mowed an acre or more, cutting the grass very smoothly. There was in the immediate vicinity a flock of beautiful Cotswold sheep under the care of an old Scotchman and two dogs; thus indicating to what use the lawn grass would be put in the coming winter. There were some two hundred of these fine sheep in the flock. There was also a herd of deer and elk in an enclosure in the Park, which, with the sheep and camels, have to be fed with hay in the winter.—N. Y. Far.

ENGLISH WHEAT CROP.—Mr. J. B Lawes has written his annual letter to the Times as regards the probable yield of English wheat the current year: and the remarkable success of his previous estimates entitles it to the general attention it receives from the English press. He reaches the conclusion: "That the wheat crop of 1869 is slightly below the average in quantity, and it will also be deficient in quality, as estimated by the weight per bushel. Assuming that an average crop is represented by a produce of 28½ bushels, weighing 61 lbs. per bushel. I am disposed to fix the present crop as equal to 27 bushels of the same weight." The quantity of imported wheat to be required by the United Kingdom from other countries, for the year to come, he estimates at 9,750,000 quarters, a quantity two million quarters larger than the imports for the twelve months preceding Aug. 31, 1869.

DIARRHŒA IN FOWLS.—The causes are a scanty supply of grain, which necessitates an excess of green food; or an unwholesome dietary of any description, are the usual causes of this complaint. The treatment is simple: five grains of powdered chalk, the same quantity of rhubarb, and the same of cayenne pepper, may be administered; and if relaxation is not speedily checked, a grain of opium and one of powdered ipecacuanha may be given every five or six hours.—Tegetemier.

ALDERMAN MECHI writes to the London Times that he shall hereafter arrange to make his hay by furnace heat. The apparatus consists of a coke furnace, and a fan by which the heat is driven through a small chamber filled with grass. In fifteen minutes it is converted into hay, sweeter and greener than can be made by sun-drying; it works in all weathers, and dries grain, corn and roots as well.

CURE FOR GLANDERS.—A correspondent of the Southern Cultivator asserts that a large stable of horses and mules affected by glanders were saved by giving to each a teaspoonful of tartar emetic three times a day for six days consecutively; then discontinued the dose for six days, when the treatment was repeated on such as were not well. The animals were fed and worked as usual during the treatment, and not one was lost of those so treated.

IT is stated that the Percheron horses, introduced into Central Ohio within the last few years, are giving good satisfaction, and are being bred more extensively this year than at any previous one.

THE currycomb should not be neglected; its use on all kinds of neat stock and horses is a great preventive of disease and vermin, and is productive of health.

THE largest wrought iron beam ever rolled at a single heat is on exhibition at the Buffalo Industrial Exhibition. It is seventy feet long, and weighs 8,000 pounds.

THE WORLD,

DODGES' OHIO AND BUCKEYE

Reapers and Mowers.

A careful examination of these machines will convince any one of their superiority over all others in simplicity of construction, freedom of draft, and reliability for work, on all kinds of ground, and in every variety of grass and grain. Confident of this we invite those to want of a good machine to examine for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.

These machines can be sold as Naked Mowers—REAPERS as Hand Rake, Self-Rake, or Dropper—Two different sizes: No. 1 Machine, with two cutter Bars and three Knives, cutting five and a half feet in grain and four feet eight inches in grass; No. 2, cutting four feet six inches.

We have that confidence in these machines that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test them with any other they may wish, and keep the one that gives most satisfaction. DODGES' AUTOMAN SELF-RAKE has given such general satisfaction that we consider it the best Self-Rake out, and is attached to Machine, and the Dodge Machine, the Best and Lightest Mower.

For the benefit of those wanting machines we would refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold the last season, viz:

John Deardorff, Sen.,	Henry Culp,
Ephraim Lady,	Henry King,
George Lady,	Elisha Penrose,
Jonathan Wisler,	David Stewart
James Hickley,	W. Rose White,

Also, WHITE TOOTH HAY RAKES, including the celebrated Grandt Rake, and Self-discharging Rake. Also, PLOUGHS, FANNING MILLS, AND FARM IMPLEMENTS GENERALLY.

Persons wishing to examine machines will find them at the warehouse of JOHN WEIK & Sons, Gettysburg, Pa., or at the residence of the subscriber, 2 miles from Gettysburg, on the Harrisburg road. Persons wanting Circulars will address the subscriber, Gettysburg, Pa.

STILL AHEAD!

HOFFHEINS'

REAPER & MOWER,

One of the Greatest Machines of the Age.

IS superior to any other Machine now in use, and will excel any that will ever be introduced, having been thoroughly tried and given general satisfaction. I would now inform all those who intend purchasing Machines to call and examine for themselves. This Machine is noted particularly to excel all other machines in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability of work, in all kinds of grass and grain.—I can also get grain admirably with a great lean Machine to a farmer. It can be used as a hand rake as well as a self-raker. It cuts 5 feet 2 inches in grass; 4 feet 10 inches in grass; has a steel cutter bar, with wrought iron guards; it can be used as a single Mower. Also a Combined Machine.

A full trial of the Machine can be had.

Also, SHERMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, and the great and well-known BRANT RAKE, the best rakes ever introduced. We would also call your attention to the LION DOUBLE SHOVEL PLOUGH, wrought iron frame, very light and strong, steel shovels, easily adjusted to run shallow or deep, and is neatly and tastefully finished.

ALSO, THE KEELER AND EXCELSIOR FANNING MILL, the old standards, improved, for many years a great favorite among the farmers of Pennsylvania. It is large and strong, has two cockle screens, and warranted to work perfectly.

Also all kinds of FARMING IMPLEMENTS always on hand.

Any person wishing to examine these machines can see them at the Battle-field Hotel or at my residence, 3 miles from Gettysburg, between the Taneytown road and the Baltimore pike.

GEISER'S PATENT SELF-REGULATING

GRAIN SEPARATOR,

CLEANER AND BAGGER,

With the latest improved Triple-geared Horse Power, either Gear or Belt.

This machine has successfully competed with all the best of the different patented Grain Separators, and now has the reputation of being the best Separator ever produced; in fact, the only Separator and Cleaner ever before the public to give general satisfaction.

The machine is conveniently arranged for hauling and threshing, being permanently fixed on two wheels. One man can easily move or shift it about, so that it is not half the trouble on a barn floor as a common thresher and shaker. It is also easily put in operation. It is simple, easily managed, reliable, durable, compact and cleanly to work by white in operation, not making near the dust as the common machine or other Separators.

Farmers can rest assured that this machine is no humbug, and judging from the high recommendation of farmers that are using them we must come to the conclusion that it is the very machine that farmers want.

The following are a few of the persons who have used this machine, well known, and to whom the public are referred for further information:

Wm. J. Peters, Flora Dale, Adams co. Penna.
Wm Kohler, near New Oxford,	"
John D. Pfautz, near Gettysburg	"

Daniel Peters, Hunterville,	"
John Waltman, Mechanicsburg,	"
Michael Fiscel, Mountjoy twp.,	"
John Smail, McSherrystown,	"

Repair Castings for the above machine will be kept by the Agent, and also by Ephraim Fiscel, near Gettysburg.

Our facilities for transacting this immense business are better than ever before. We have agents in all the principal cities to purchase goods from the Manufacturers, Importers, and others, for CASH, and often at an immense sacrifice from the original cost of production.

Our stock consists, in part, of the following goods:—

MOROCCO TRAVELLING BAGS, HANDKERCHIEF AND GLOVE BOXES, &c.

We do not offer a single article of merchandise, that can be sold by regular dealers at our price. We do not ask you to buy goods from us unless we can sell them cheaper than you can obtain them in any other way,—while the greater part of our goods are sold at about
